

Edci 627: Historical Look at Diversity in Children

This course will look at children and adolescent (young adult) literature from its earliest roots in Greek/Roman/Norse mythology, fairy tales/folk literature to the bases of "modern" literature in the 17th, 18th, 19th, and 20th centuries. Students will compare and contrast how different racial, ethnic, religious, etc., groups have been portrayed through centuries/decades.
