

G St 427: US Sexuality History

SARAH ISOM CENTER FOR WOMEN'S STUDIES

This course explores changing conceptions of sexuality in the United States and investigates how sexuality differed according to class, gender, race, geographic location, and age from the mid-1800s to the present.

3 Credits

Cross-listed Courses

- Hst 436: US Sexuality History

Subject Areas

- Women's Studies

Related Areas

- African-American/Black Studies
- Ethnic, Cultural Minority, Gender, and Group Studies, Other
- Gay/Lesbian Studies

