

G St 402: Advanced Queer Studies

SARAH ISOM CENTER FOR WOMEN'S STUDIES

This course investigates ongoing theoretical and cultural issues in queer studies. Focuses of the course may include theories of embodiment, the relationship of gender to sexuality, the politics of transgender identity, and issues of normativity as they relate to gay and lesbian assimilation. Students will apply these theories to cultural phenomena in the culture at large.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- Pre-Requisite: 24 Earned Hours
- G St 201 or G St 202

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for G St 402

Subject Areas

- Women's Studies

Related Areas

- African-American/Black Studies
- Ethnic, Cultural Minority, Gender, and Group Studies, Other
- Gay/Lesbian Studies

