

B.A. in Theatre Arts

OverviewDegree Requirements

Description

The B.A. in theatre arts is a generalist degree program that allows students to study and train in many different aspects of the theatre, including stage management, performance, direction, design, and film. The B.A. degree is designed for students who want to teach on either the secondary or college level, to pursue a graduate degree in one of theatre's academic areas (history, literature, criticism), or to pursue a career in directing or film production.

Minimum Total Credit Hours: 124

General Education Requirements

See the 'General Education/Core Curriculum' for the School of Liberal Arts.

Course Requirements

A major in theatre arts for the B.A. degree requires 38 hours of theatre arts courses, including Thea 120, 271, 272, 321, 322, 326, 327, 338, 339, 499, and 16 hours of theatre electives.

Other Academic Requirements

A grade of C or higher is required on all theatre courses applied toward the major.

