

Edci 630: Capstone Research Project

Teacher Education

The Capstone research course is a seminar designed for M.Ed. students to demonstrate their competence, professional growth and scholarship. Students will pursue individual research questions about learning, curriculum, and related issues. Students will present their research paper in a public format at the end of the semester.

This course will be taken in the final term of a student's M.Ed. program (fall or spring).
