

Phil 310: Socrates & Sophistry

Philosophy & Religion

The intellectual ferment surrounding the development of philosophy in fifth century Athens; its origins and consequences in literature and politics. Readings focus on Socrates; drama, early philosophical texts, the Sophists and Plato.

3 Credits

Cross-listed Courses

- Clc 310: Socrates and Sophistry

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for Phil 310

Subject Areas

- Philosophy

Related Areas

- Applied and Professional Ethics
- Ethics
- Logic
- Philosophy, Other

