

Hst 375: History of Islam in Africa

Arch Dalrymple III Department of History

This course explores the history of Islam in Africa from the seventh century through the twentieth century. The primary focus is on West and East Africa. Topics include Muslim minorities in non-Muslim societies, Islam and slavery, women in Muslim societies, Jihad movements in Africa, Muslim responses to the nineteenth century European expansion, Islam and colonialism and Islam and post-colonial developments.

3 Credits

Cross-listed Courses

- Aas 394: History of Islam in Africa

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for Hst 375
- Lecture: Web-based Lecture for Hst 375

Subject Areas

- History, General

Related Areas

- American History United States
- Asian History
- European History
- History and Philosophy of Science and Technology
- History, Other

