

Coun 662: Practicum in CMH Counseling Leadership & Counselor Education

Students will engage in a supervised counseling experience in a clinical setting under the supervision of the course instructor and an on-site supervisor. Students will apply principles, techniques, and strategies acquired in previous coursework and demonstrate relevant acquired skills and developed competencies. Students must complete 100 hours of practical experience (minimum of 40 direct contact hours) and participate in weekly supervision with an on-site supervisor. Formative and summative evaluations of the student's counseling performance and ability to integrate and apply knowledge are conducted as part of practicum.
