

Arab 361: Arabic Language through Cinema

Modern Languages

This course introduces students to contemporary Arab cinema through a close analysis of the cultural characteristics that distinguish it from other types of cinemas. Students will learn about the dynamics of political, social, cultural, and religious diversity in the Arab world from 1980 till present.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- Arab 312: Intensive Arabic VI $target.descriptions.MinimumGrade$

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for Arab 361

Subject Areas

- Arabic Language and Literature

