

US 102: Pre-College Research

College of Liberal Arts

This course may be used to accept high school work from students who successfully complete the Advanced Placement (AP) Research course, which encourages independent research, teamwork, and communication skills through a significant discipline-specific research project. This course will be used as general elective credit unless the student's academic dean approves its use to fulfill a degree requirement.

Z grade.

3 Credits

Instruction Type(s)

- Seminar: Seminar for US 102

Subject Areas

- Multi-/Interdisciplinary Studies, General

