

Bus 330: Ethical Management and Decision Making

Management

This course is designed to provide students with a deep understanding of the ethical challenges and decision-making processes crucial for effective management. This course integrates ethical theory with practical management strategies, offering a comprehensive examination of how ethical considerations influence organizational practices and decision making.

3 Credits

Prerequisites

- Pre-requisite: Successful completion of 54 hours.

Instruction Type(s)

- Lecture: Lecture for Bus 330
- Lecture: Compressed Video for Bus 330
- Lecture: Web-based Lecture for Bus 330

Subject Areas

- Business/Commerce, General

