

High School Education Description

The University of Mississippi Independent Study High School is a virtual high school delivering a comprehensive high school academic experience that can complement offerings in local districts or provide courses leading to an UM-ISHS diploma.

